

Rob serves as the president of Allegiant Reverse Services and has had a longstanding career in the Title and Settlement industry since 2001. Before moving full time into the reverse mortgage industry in 2003, Rob was a regional director for North American Title. His career in real estate, which followed his retirement from the National Football League, started in 1999 when he founded Granite Exchange Services, a 1031 exchange intermediary. Rob has been featured in numerous industry magazines and online forums.