

Timothy Isgro, Reverse Mortgage Investment Trust Inc.

Timothy A. Isgro has been the Chief Investment Officer of Reverse Mortgage Investment Trust Inc. since September 2013. As CIO, Tim has various responsibilities, including managing the firm's investments, balance sheet, and securitizations, co-managing the firm's Servicing Oversight Group, and developing new mortgage products. From 2012 to 2013, Tim was employed by PNC Financial Services Group, a large U.S. bank and financial services firm, where he served as a director and portfolio manager and was responsible for managing the bank's reverse mortgage portfolio, as well as performing a variety of analysis and modeling for the bank's securities portfolio. Prior to PNC, Tim worked as a Research Strategist for Bank of America Merrill Lynch and was responsible for developing and marketing investment strategies for reverse mortgage and other mortgage products for the bank's institutional trading clients. Tim is certified as a Chartered Financial Analyst.