

In her role as Member Services Coordinator at NRMLA, Mital Kaminer oversees the association's initiatives working with members, organizing committees, and assisting with marketing efforts.

Her background includes experience with program management, strategic planning, and event planning.

Mital received her B.A from the University of Georgia.