

Jennifer Cosentini is the Housing Director at Cambridge Credit Counseling Corp. In this role, Jennifer oversees all aspects of the company's Housing Counseling service offerings, including program development, execution, analysis, evaluation, innovation / refinement, and internal and external partnership management.

Other responsibilities include supervising all counseling staff, hiring, and training new staff as needed, and ensuring that the program pipeline from intake to file closure meets or exceeds National Industry Standards and complies with all funding and regulatory requirements.

Jennifer is also a HUD Certified Housing Counselor and has personally counseled over 3,500 potential reverse mortgage borrowers since 2011.