

David Peskin, CEO
HighTechLending

David Peskin is the CEO of HighTechLending, Inc. (HTL) also known as American Senior Lending. David currently serves as a Board Member of the National Reverse Mortgage Lenders Association (NRMLA). David was Co-Founder and President of Reverse Mortgage Funding LLC where he oversaw the mortgage banking arm of the business. David grew the business from a startup to 500+ employees and originated over $15 billion in loan production, comprised of GNMA HMBS and private-label mortgages. The company serviced over 140,000 loans nationally for borrowers over the age of 55. RMF was sold to Starwood Capital Group in 2021. Prior to RMF, David worked with Cerberus Capital and Light Year Capital on a roll up strategy to purchase a Reverse Mortgage Lender and servicing platform. In 1994, David founded and served as CEO of Senior Lending Network, a large lender of Reverse Mortgages. Senior Lending Network was sold to KBC Bank in 2007 providing a 200 percent IRR to its investors.
